

Carson Howard

12/31/90 to 12/2/08

"I loved the boy with the utmost love of which my soul is capable of and he is taken from me - yet in the agony of my spirit in surrendering such a treasure, I feel a thousand times richer than if I had never possessed it."

-William Wordsworth

YOU ARE MISSED.

"Carson was a real positive young man. He brought life to the classroom, and always had a smile on his face. Everybody in the school is touched by this loss because he wasn't necessarily affiliated with just one group of kids. Everybody loved him and wanted to be around him because he was funny, kind and generous."

*-Tracy Poulsen,
assistant principal and former teacher*

"Glasses, Supra, HOSA, Drivers Ed, rolling houses...there are many things that remind me of you, but can't seem to find anything that can replace you. I feel blessed and honored that you impacted my life."

-Keong Min Yoon, friend

"Carson was a really great guy and he made people laugh. We were the class clowns in German, always causing trouble, but Frau Carico didn't mind because we were her favorites. We were competitive, but the truth is I had to cheat half the time to beat him. I still remember the last time I saw him. It was right before gym and I kicked the coke machine because it stole his money. I will never forget that day."

-Kevin Klemenz, friend

He was a friend of mine, He was a friend of mine
Every time I hear his name, Lord I just can't keep from cryin'
'Cause he was a friend of mine.

-Bob Dylan
